

CANADIAN SOCIAL SERVICES DATABASE

Today the need for vibrant and effective social service and community support systems has risen significantly. With the challenges and problems faced by families and youngsters growing each day, a strong social service network contributes significantly in making a positive difference in the lives of many people. The Canadian Social Services database datacard provides you with an expansive Canadian file that is selectable by employee size, SIC code, ethnicity, and title. These professionals would welcome offers pertaining to continuing education, seminars, computer hardware and software, computer services, office supplies, subscriptions, financial and insurance offers, and more. This file is a self reported opt-in file with all responders given the opportunity to opt-out.
