SELF-STORAGE & MOVING COMPANIES

NEW TO MARKET

These thriving businesses reflect the dynamic quality of the U.S. economy. Business owners, entrepreneurs, consumers, and established companies use these facilities as adjuncts to their own enterprises. All records include the name and title of the self-storage facility manager or owner. Moving Companies move household furniture, clothing, electronics and office goods, as well as specialty items such as pianos, trade show exhibits and antiques either locally or interstate (long distance movers). Moving companies also provide long- and short-term storage for the items that they move (storage-in-transit).
